

The vision for a unified Cedar Rapids begins by establishing a program, much like the architectural program for a building project. This program identifies the ingredients of development – the amount of space that may be possible for the city, present and future community needs, current projects that are pending, and other opportunities.

Stakeholder Task Force Meeting
 Public Meeting
 Deliverables

next event...
 april 7-10