

Pocket Plaza Banner Art Revised Proposal

An illustrated tribute to Cedar Rapids and all of its diversity, vibrance, entrepreneurship and industrial importance.

Arabesque design inspired by the Mother Mosque of America

Geometric depiction of the Cedar River and the four quadrants

Czech floral design inspired by the Czech history in Cedar Rapids

A vibrant shout out to Crunch Berries, one of the many cereals processed locally

An abstract print based on 0's and 1's (computer code) that is inspired by the Tech Corridor and the technology based work of NewBoCo

A fun way to highlight the prevalence of corn processing in Cedar Rapids

Cedar trees composed of a colorful and modernized take on quilt patterns

Inspired by the initiative by the city of Cedar Rapids to create pollinator zones within the city

This panel is inspired by Cedar Rapids based civil rights activist Viola Gibson and her collection of china dishes, some of which are housed at the African American Museum of Iowa. This piece is a take on a china pattern done in the emblematic colors that are displayed on the outside walls of the museum.
