

3) We have waited months for the answers to our questions only to receive information we already had from public meetings — & our specific questions ^{have gone} unanswered. This is not interactive community building.