evaluation of strategies related to

Accountability of Landlords and Tenants:

- 1) Does a yearly license mean that the landlord will have to "purchase" this license? This is unfair because the landlord already has their ^{rental} property registered with the city of Cedar Rapids. For inspections. The property has to pass city code and inspection.
- 2) By law, a landlord can not touch or remove anything off of the tenant's ^{occupied} rental property - so how do you expect the landlord to be accountable for this without getting sued?
- 3) IF the tenant lets the grass grow a foot & a half make the tenant pay for the city to mow it and
