FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Parent/Child Fairy Tale Funtime to be held Thursdays at Ushers Ferry

Cedar Rapids, IA – December 8, 2009 – The Cedar Rapids Parks and Recreation Department invites you to bring your child (ages 3-6) to the Ushers Ferry’s Visitors Center for great stories, a snack, and fun activities on Thursdays from 10:00-11:30 a.m. in January and February. Master storyteller Darrin Crow will bring to life a new fairy tale each week. January fairy tales are Rumpelstiltskin, The Emperor’s New Clothes, Snow White, and Hansel and Gretel. Four more sessions of Fairy Tale Funtime will be held in February. More information will be available in the spring catalog.

The fee per session is $10/child for residents and $12/child for non-residents. All four sessions are $36/child for residents and $41/child for non-residents. Adult admission is free. Program numbers: #314704-01 (January 8), #314704-02 (January 15), #314704-03 (January 22), #314704-04 (January 29), #314704-05 (All four sessions). Register by calling the Cedar Rapids Parks & Recreation Department, 286-5731, or go to www.crrec.org.
